

Fixmywindshield.com ads fuel surcharge to list of choices when calculating a quote.

Fixmywindshield.com a pioneer in the NO COST PER WEEK auto glass quote business, today announced that it has added a new feature enabling retailers to figure in a fuel surcharge to their Quotes.

When customers ask for a new feature, responds. Today Fixmywindshield.com has enabled Auto Glass shops, using Fixmywindshield.com for providing customers an Auto Glass Quote the ability to add on a fuel surcharge to the total of the Auto Glass Repair Quote.

"This will allow Auto Glass Shops like mine to include a fuel surcharge in our auto glass quote, with out having to modify our current price we have set" Says Larry Diesbach a long time customer of the Fixmywindshield.com site, and one of the concept creators.

"We listen closely to what the customers needs are, after all with out the customer we have no company." Says Craig Larson one of the Fixmywindshield.com web developers.

Fixmywindshield.com is proud to provide Auto Glass Quotes with no hidden weekly fees, no monthly fee. You only pay when we pass a job along to you.
